

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, DCS
ATTN : Alien Staff []
FROM : Chief [] Office []
SUBJECT: Case 32254 -- Fred Z. Launags

DATE: 2 March 1967
FOR-16-67

1. A letter addressed to Subject was received at the home of [] with a return address of 340 Landes Hall, Millersville, Pennsylvania, 17551. In an effort to locate Subject, Mrs. Coggins, Manager of the Tillamook Hotel, Tillamook, Oregon, where Vern Hawkins and his tree-planting crew stayed while in Tillamook, was contacted. She informed [] that Subject had appeared dressed for work on Wednesday morning, 22 February 1967, and that Hawkins and his crew, including Subject, moved their base of operations later that day to Myrtle Point, Oregon. Mrs. Coggins believed that Hawkins and his crew would be in the Myrtle Point area for at least three weeks.

2. Following this information the Myrtle Hotel, 310 Fifth Street, Myrtle Point, Oregon (telephone: 572-2822) was contacted by [] and it was ascertained that Mr. Hawkins and his crew were presently registered at the hotel. It was also determined that Subject, Launags, was registered at the hotel in Room 219 and that he is currently working under Mr. Hawkins. The manager of the Myrtle Hotel informed us that Hawkins and his crew expect to remain in the Myrtle Point area for an additional five weeks or so before changing their base.
